

Supply Chain Management and Logistics

Qualify for growing job opportunities in purchasing, procurement, logistics, and supply chain management. Learn from experienced supply chain professionals and graduate with real work experience.

Supply chain and logistics management involves moving a product through every stage of manufacturing and distribution. Every product you buy goes through a supply chain to get from the factory to your store shelf.

Herzing College Toronto is proud to be endorsed by Supply Chain Canada (SCC), the country's leading association of supply chain management professionals.

In addition to a Herzing diploma, our graduates receive a Supply Chain Management Training (SMT) diploma from SCC
