

TOP REASONS TO WORK IN OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

STEADY DEMAND ACROSS CANADA

EMPLOYMENT GROWTH FOR OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY
ROLES IN EVERY PROVINCE

(SOURCE: GOVERNMENT OF CANADA JOB BANK)

MEANINGFUL WORK THAT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

- Inspecting workplaces for safety hazards
- Enforcing worker health and safety rights
- Investigating accidents, safety violations, and complaints
- Developing workplace safety programs
- Delivering health and safety training

MULTIPLE EMPLOYMENT OPTIONS

- Government agencies
- Insurance companies
- Healthcare organizations
- Private businesses

START TRAINING TODAY

- 12-month Health and Safety Diploma at Herzing College
- Option to learn online
- Program approved by the Board of Canadian Registered Safety Professionals (BCRSP)
- Graduates are immediately eligible for CRST (Canadian Registered Safety Technician) certification
- Gain real-life experience through internship

COMPETITIVE SALARIES

TYPICAL STARTING SALARY:

$40,000 PER YEAR

MEDIAN SALARY:

$53,000 PER YEAR

SALARY WITH EXPERIENCE:

$82,000 PER YEAR

(SOURCE: PAYSACLE.COM)

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED CERTIFICATIONS

ENTRY-LEVEL - Canadian Registered Safety Technician (CRST) Certification

ADVANCED - Canadian Registered Safety Professional (CRSP) Certification

VISIT HERZING.CA TO LEARN MORE OR SPEAK WITH AN ADMISSIONS ADVISOR

HERZING
COLLEGE